Foreword

WE, the class of January 1927, present this Senior A number of the Magician, desiring to portray our four short but happy years in Barberton High School; years that we will always remember as the brightest of our school career. We also wish to perpetuate the ambitions and activities of each class, club and organization in our school.

Farewell

FOUR short years have passed, four years of hard and unfaltering labor, in which we have striven to do our best. Our class owes to you, teachers and students, our hearty thanks for that which we could never have obtained without your aid and guidance. We have contributed our honest efforts to make our school a success. We are leaving you now, dear friends, hoping that you will continue the good work which we are leaving. Good luck to you, teachers, students and friends. May your four years in Barberton High School be as pleasant as ours have been.

Dedication

WE, the members of the Senior A Class, heartily dedicate this Annual to Miss Edna Jeffries, our honorary member. She has guided us through our last year in High School with persistent effort and unfaltering faith.

CLASS SONG

Evelyn Dapp Jan '27. ©

1. We are leaving the halls of old B. H. S. Where for four short years we have staid,
 2. So we leave and are glad to go for-ward, and take our place in life's game. Ten' we high-er standard of Schol-ar-ship The best we have had we have giv'n bound to-win or lose we will strug-gle on and fight to the end just the same So geth-er in friend-ship we fail-ing By the sor-row and joys of the years---- Do you up-ward When Stars like Burn-ing Oh! keep the Stan-dards high---- Now the wonder that the re-tro-spec-tion brings heart-aches and---- tears-----

 To a many class of Twen-Ty Seem--Bids B. H. S. Good-Bye

Fragments of Memories

The huge quiet chapel is filled
Row upon row—wide and long;
And suddenly our hearts are thrilled
By the opening bars of our song.
As one, we arise, stand
Reverent, attentive, true,
A staunch, a loyal band—
Our cry, B. H. S. to you.

The crowded bleachers are hushed
Into silence half hope, half fright;
But now down the field has rushed
That dear old brown and white!
The ball, the victory, are ours—
Our cheers arise to the sky;
And the brave, true brown, the clear pure white
Of our colors still float high.

Here in wisdom's halls
We are seeking after truth;
For a traveler gropes, falls
Without a heart of youth.
We are just beginning to know—
We are but learning to live;
This freedom of mind—our school
You must give to us—O give!

And now we leave these portals,
We are ready to play our part
In the life, the world, the hope of today
With a clear, climbing heart.
Our school, give us your spirit,
Your kindness, balms to our tears—
To keep us high, brave, young
Down the lonely stair of years.

—Estabeulah Heskett

Class History

*"Ye who believe in affection that hopes and endures and is patient,
Ye who believe in the beauty and strength of friends' devotion,
List to the wonderful tradition still sung by the pines of the forest!
List to the history of the class of January '27."*

YOU have read many histories and you have heard many histories, but none are half so interesting as the history of the class of January '27, of Barberton Central High School, Barberton, Ohio, U. S. A. This history will live for ages and will be read by generations yet to come (or ought to be). No one will ever forget the honors, the joys, the happiness we have given to this High School.

When you are old and burdened with care, your hands work-worn and calloused, your hair thin and gray, and from care and worry you are free for awhile, as you sit in your husband's or wife's old armchair, on the wings of an eagle you will soar back to your childhood once more. Your eyes will fill with tears, your voice will quiver, your heart flutter, and your body tremble, as you read of the joys our class gave you. If you are a member of this class it will be still more vivid with memories as you read.

Four short years ago one hundred and five lonely little Freshies graced the halls of B. H. S. These Freshies came from the four corners of Barberton—Hazelwood, Highland, Washington and Lincoln schools. That Friday afternoon we received many sneers and jeers from the almighty Seniors, and the mighty Juniors. We congregated in the auditorium and were later escorted to rooms 11, 12, 13 and 14 which we were told, were our home rooms. On the following Tuesday we were told to go to chapel. As we neared the auditorium we had heard the other classmen clapping for all they were worth, but as we entered the auditorium the clapping stopped. We had been taken for Freshmen A's. This first semester ended without any class meetings.

The following September we entered B. H. S. no longer Freshies but Freshmen. We occupied rooms 16, 17 and 18 our number being somewhat decreased. During this semester we held our first class meeting under the direction of Mr. Everett. Evans Carrier was elected president, Fred Krieder, vice-president, and Evelyn Dapp, secretary and treasurer of our distinguished class. This semester we held our first party, as a masquerade, in the gym.

In January we became Sophomores and we still occupied rooms 16, 17 and 18. This term we had for our honorary members Miss Ruff and Mr. and Mrs. Baker, keeping the same class officers. This semester we held a party in the bank rooms.

The following September found us Sophomore A's dwelling in the Commercial room and room 25. This year we elected Paul Brotsman, president; Ilma Krupp, vice-president, and Leola Schild secretary and treasurer. Miss Cline and Mr. Bryant were our honorary members.

Then, we were Junior B's and upper-classmen, but to tell the truth it didn't feel a bit different. We still occupied the same rooms and had the same officers. This semester we selected our class rings—white gold ones.

The next September we entered rooms 30 and 31, now Junior A's. We chose for our president, Ruth Chapman, vice-president, Leola Schild, secretary and treasurer, Ruth Pahlau. Our honorary members were Miss Ruff, Miss Jeffries and Mr. Niehaus.

The days flew swiftly by as we attended to our work faithfully and cheerfully and at last a cry rang through the building "We are Seniors." This semester our home room was the Study Hall. During the first month we experienced the turmoil which accompanies the selecting of class sweaters. They were finally selected and ordered—scarlet ones with a white emblem. How proud we were of them!

Then, we were Senior A's, keeping the officers we selected in our Junior A term, and having Miss Jeffries for honorary member. We experienced that dreadful feeling that comes only when chapel speeches are given. "But soon for us will our school days be ended" and our forty-five members will enter the world, brilliant young ladies and handsome young men. Will not the world feel honored? And we, the class of January '27, hope that your class history will be as full of pleasant memories, friendships, and joys as ours has been.

—Reita Webb

On the Air

(The Class Prophecy)

AN old maid gets lonesome once in a while, especially when she has not seen any of her old friends for a number of years. My radio! That was it! Perhaps it could take the blues away. I tuned into Chicago. A low voice sounded through the room, and to my surprise I recognized Harold Edward's voice, who said, his voice lower than ever, "As a request from the different parts of the world, the majority being from B. H. S., inhabitants of Barberton, I will proceed to inform the public, who have not yet heard of the famous Class of January '27, their whereabouts and activities.

Charles Fischer of the Great Erie Railroad is now in California, planning a bridge which will expand across the Pacific, so that he may see his wife, who by the way, is Leola Schild, a missionary in China. Speaking of China, Lawrence Sutter is working as a coolie, to become fit for the next football season (following the footsteps of Red Grange.)

Harriet Stough, a debutante, has recently eloped with a professor, a gentleman who prefers blondes. By the way, Miss Stough has had a beautiful romance. She met the professor in high school days, when he was teaching history.

Ella Hartman, after attempting to swim the English channel, has decided that Lake Anna is the safest.

Juanita Heller has grown famous overnight. She has discovered a liquid which, on taking a dose, one may grow as tall as she wishes. Miss Heller is now 6 ft. 2 in. —her wish came true.

Ilma Krupp and Ruth Pahlau are teaching at Kenmore. Kenmore is profiting by the knowledge gained in Barberton.

Ves Thesing is in the plumbing business. After work, he lectures on prohibition.

James Jones and Evelyn Paridon are married. They are residing in the South, trying to grow rubber on a cotton field.

James Townsend has gone into the movies, taking Farina's place "In Our Gang."

Lyle Johnston is studying models. He loves to have the women around him. And then, we have the announcement concerning one of the best orchestras ever to broadcast over the radio, the "Lotta Noyse Orchestra" Eugene Collier, sometimes known as the tin-masked tenor, assisted by Thelma Herwick, the mandolin player who struts a mean-wicked pick, Larue Nichols at the piano and Emily Dombrosky, who excels in playing the ear drum.

Ralph Getz is porter in the Hotel Grande in Hametown; he also cleans the cuspidors, lamps and other miscellaneous articles that are found on the floor.

A woman has reached the heights! Ruth Chapman has been elected Justice of the Peace. She claims that she procured all her experience in being president of the Senior A class.

Harry Bucy manufacturers ladies' garters. He has been very successful in the business.

After all of Estabeulah Heskett's career as an orator and statesman, she is going to give this up to join her husband in the drug store business situated in Kenmore.

The Grand theatre of Akron has Elizabeth Ratimar as the headliner. She will show the public how to look young at seventy-five without Edna Wallace Hopper's relief.

Dale Driesbach is salesman in Alaska selling fur lined dishpans to the Eskimos.

Art Quinn is the highest paid laborer in America. He is training a tribe of fleas to do the Black Bottom.

Ralph Sutter is a foot doctor. He specializes in bunions and odors.

Frances Garbor runs a beauty shop in which she specializes in dying hair without using peroxide.

Ferrel Grigsby is pianist at the Pastime theatre.

Sid Cain has invented a cure for the barber's itch. He is now applying for a patent.

Paul Brotsman has joined a circus. He has gained notoriety in imitating the monkey species.

Richard McHenry has a pet shop on Bolivar Road. His favorite pets are porcupines and skunks.

Ed Razor has a gasoline station. He specializes in Lovers' Gas, guaranteed to give out at the first dark corner.

Agnes Wallick, Sue Hill, Mary Bolland and Geraldine Way are all happy, though married. Sue got what she wanted, a banjo player. As to the other girls, they're not complaining as yet.

Kenneth Miklos is a Latin and Greek professor at Oxford. He loves to lecture upon the beauties of the Greek goddesses.

Reita Webb is in a nursery teaching babies how to talk, due to her experience in B. H. S. Eleanor Sonnhalter poses for the P. & G. Soap Company, the skin you love to wash.

Gordon Houck is certainly flying high now. He has joined the aviation corps in order to fly away from the women, but they still look up to him with adoration.

Geraldine Davis is a dietitian at a famous hospital, one of her faithful patients is Karl Yeomans, who is trying to lose the one hundred pounds of excess flesh since leaving B. H. S. Karl sells silk hosiery for a living.

Howard Snyder has composed quite a few jazz songs, one which is very popular now, called "I'm Getting Red in the Face, I Know I Am."

Johnny Smith is a professional football player. He is noted for kicking the baseball into the basket.

Ellsworth Whims is Dean of girls at B. H. S. Tardiness and absence lists endure no more, as girls love to stay in school when the dean is around.

Evelyn Dapp after a bit of hesitation has finally made up her mind to marry her protege, an accomplished violin player in the Sophomore class.

And then, as the last in the program, we have Miss Jeffries, honorary member of January Class of '27. Miss Jeffries is happily married to a professional football player (she adores athletes) and calls him "Art." We are now signing off, Station BVD, Chicago, Good-night.

I put the radio away with a sigh, yet I was very happy (even if I was still unmarried) just to know that my classmates were still living and enjoying life as fate had chosen.

— Clara Levin

Class Will

(Harriet Stough)

Ladies and Gentlemen, Board of Education, Superintendent, Teachers and Friends:—

Upon behalf of my client, the Class of January 1927, of the Barberton High School, of the City of Barberton, State of Ohio, United States of America, I have called you together upon this solemn and serious occasion, to listen to her last will and testament, and to receive from her dying hand the few gifts she has to bestow in her last moments.

Cutting so rapidly loose from her life, and finding so many things of such gigantic proportion to be attended to before the end should come upon her, realizing at the same time that she had no longer any time left to spend in the cultivation of her own virtues, she did, collectively and individually, deem it best to distribute these virtues with her own hands to those friends to whose needs they seemed best fitted.

As a result of this announcement a wild scene took place amidst most frantic pleading and scrambling among her friends for this or that so long coveted glory; but she has tried to be just, as well as generous and impartial, and distribute wisely unto those who will make the best use of such gifts as she has in her power to bestow, the talents that have served her so faithfully, these four years. These are her decisions, as at last definitely arrived at through a deliberate consideration.

Owing to the flighty condition of her brain, and the unusual disturbance in its gray matter, she begs me to state for her that she may quite possibly have been mistaken in her inventory; but such things as she thinks she has, she hereby gives unto your possession, praying that you will accept them as a sacred trust from one who has gone before.

We, the Class of January 1927, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void, all former wills and promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

And first we do direct that our funeral services shall be conducted by our friends with all the dignity and pomp that our worth, our merit, our attainments, and our position as Seniors of "grave and reverend mien," must certainly have deserved.

As to such estate as it has pleased the Fates and our own strong hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

ITEM I

We give and bequeath to the dear teachers who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of ages, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. No longer need they lie awake through the long watches of the night to worry over the uncertainty of whether this one is doing her night work, or that one will have all her mathematics in the morning class, or the other will remember every iron-clad rule of compositional technique in the preparation of her essay. It has been a hard strain on them, for Seniors are said to be at all times and under all conditions difficult to manage. But they have done their duty, and verily, they shall now have their well-earned reward.

ITEM II

We give and bequeath to our beloved Principal, Mr. Wyman, our sincere affection and an attempt at partial payment for all that he has done for us during our last semester at Barberton High School.

ITEM III

Again, we give and bequeath to our former Principal, Mr. Tucker, our deepest reverence, our heartiest gratitude, and the whole unlimited wealth of our eternal memory.

ITEM IV

We give and bequeath to the Senior B Class all such boys as were not able to keep apace with such brilliant girls as compose the majority of our class, trusting that the Senior B girls may be able to hold firmly to them and steer them firmly next year through the Gates of Commencement, that they may not share in the humiliation that has been ours, not being able to "hold our menfolks,"—as the women of the world would put it.

ITEM V

The following may seem but trifling requests, but we hope that they may be accepted, not as worthless things, lavishly thrown away because one can no longer keep them, but as valuable assets to those whom may receive them and a continual reminder of the generosity of heart displayed in our free and full bestowal:

First, To our class-room teacher, Mr. Pfeiffer, the profound admiration and ever enduring friendship of the Class of January, 1927, in individual as well as collective manifestations.

Second, We do bequeath to Mr. Everett our appreciation in the efficient way in which he has kept tab of our "tardy marks."

Third, We will to our beloved Faculty Advisor, Miss Jeffries, our hearty thanks for her guidance. She helped us to be genial with all our classmates and also helped us to unload disappointments.

Fourth, To Mr. Seese, our new instructor, we leave the big heart of Ella Hartman, who always seems to say as he passes—my heart is big and strong but when you are able to restrain from casting gazes on an athletic woman, Oh——you cave man!

Fifth, To Mr. Spangler we leave Karl Yeoman to match him in width.

Sixth, To Mr. Pratt, our coach, the girls bequeath their apologies for looking upon his physique until he was red in the face.

Seventh, To Mr. Meassell, the Sr. A girls leave all their rouge puffs to see if he can add more color to his cheeks.

Eighth, To Miss Jacot, we bequeath many thanks of kindness for steering us through the "sea of chapel speeches," and we hope the next bunch of dumbbells will not be so dumb.

ITEM VI

1. Elizabeth Ratimar leaves her ability in cheering to Harold Eckroate.
2. To Edward Fischer, Ed Rasor wishes to will him, written on a piece of paper, four ways of "Amending the Constitution."
3. Ruth Chapman does bequeath to Charles Mears her ability to govern the Senior A Class.
4. Geraldine Way wills to Mary Jane Brown her shape which anyone would call "Venus."
5. Reita Webb wills to Ruth Bell all of her "giggles" that she can make use of.
6. Agnes Wallick, Harry Bucy and Juanita Heller leave to Mary Thomas their "golden locks."
7. Arthur Quinn begs to leave all "bluffing" to Dorothy Bantz.
8. Clara Levin, Frances Garbor and Charles Fischer wish so much to bequeath their A's to Billie Donaldson, Blanche Brubaker and Fred Parks.
9. Ralph Getz, Lytle Johnston, Johnnie Smith, Sylvester Thesing, Lawrence Sutter, Gordon Houck and Ralph Sutter bequeath their football ability to the Jr. A players.
10. Leola Schild's last request was that she leave her water wave combs and vanity to a boy of the Sr. B Class, namely, William Jennings.
11. Estabeaulah Heskett bequeaths to Edna Gardner her oratorical ability.

ITEM VII

Lastly comes the one thing hard for us to part with. To our successors we must leave our places in the hearts and thoughts of our principal and teachers.

They will love them, unworthy as we may feel they are, even as they have loved us; they will show them all the same tender kindness and attention they bestowed upon us; they will feel the same interest in their attempts and successes; the same sorrow when they fail.

We trust that the June Class of 1927 will appreciate all this as deeply as we have done, that it may be their most precious possessions, as it has been ours, and the ones we must loathe to hand over to them.

Besides, these enforced gifts, we leave—not of necessity but of our own free will—our blessing, tender memories of our pleasant associations, together and our forgiveness for anything that we may not have exactly appreciated in the demonstrations of the past, and a pledge of friendship from henceforth and forever.

And we hereby constitute and appoint the President of the Senior B Class sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In testimony whereof we have set our hands to this last will and testament at Barberton, Ohio, this thirteenth day of the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-seven.

—R. L. Reed, H. A. Pieffer

The Music Department in B. H. S.

IN every phase of school teaching it is a well known fact that it takes at least one semester to get started rightly. This is especially true in music. When Mr. Bowen, our Music Supervisor, came to Barberton this year, the music department was not what it should have been. But with the hearty co-operation and enthusiasm of the student body with Mr. Bowen, we are able to look forward to a successful coming semester.

The glee clubs having had joint rehearsals for some time are to start working on an operetta shortly.

The orchestra, numbering about thirty players, has made fine strides during the past semester, but Mr. Bowen hopes for a much better season.

The Harmony Hounds is a new organization and is indeed very interesting. They have made but few appearances but we look forward to many more.

The band is the best liked organization to the majority of people. Our band made quite a showing the first of the year, but with spring and then the coming football season next fall, the band is expected to be the most prominent feature in the Music Department.

Barberton High School Orchestra

BARBERTON High School has had an orchestra this year of which the school is proud. Under the direction of Mr. Bowen, who is recognized as a competent leader, the members of the High School Orchestra have proved that they have musical powers that are worth training.

We must attribute some of the success of the Sr. A play to the "peppy" music that our orchestra furnished. On several other occasions the orchestra furnished an important part of the entertainment.

The French Club

THE most exclusive club of the High School held their meetings regularly and each meeting was unusual and worthwhile. According to the rules of this club the meetings were conducted in French. A special Christmas program was given and at this time the members presented their leader, Miss Edna Jeffries with a beautiful bracelet.

A series of meetings have already been planned for the new semester.

Football

THE past football season was a very successful one for Barberton High, with a record of six victories, two ties and one defeat. The record made during the past season is one of the best that Barberton High has had in its history and a record that will be hard to reach or surpass in years to come. Never before did a team enter upon the gridiron with as much fighting spirit as did the team of 1926. The success was due mostly to our newly welcome coaches, Mr. Pratt and Mr. Spangler. Under their leadership and guidance there was a powerful and effective grid machine, with indomitable fighting spirit.

There was a great deal of doubt at the beginning of the 1926 season of football as to whether or not the team this year would be a success. However, it was not long before Coach Pratt had developed a backfield and given us quite a few plays so that we were ready to meet Wooster after a short practice. We tied this game. Then came Akron North which was one of the best games of the season and a hard earned victory for Barberton. The next week we met Akron East and by being scored on in the last minutes of the play registered our only defeat of the season. However, the next week it is satisfying to state that the team redeemed itself and staged a winning battle with our old rival Wadsworth. Akron Garfield was our next victory a team which was rated as rather easy but which gave Barberton a surprise. As is often said, "A poor team is equal to a good team on a muddy field." This game was not won until in the final quarter when Sutter made a place kick from the 33 yd. line. Barberton played wonderful football in the game with Central holding them to a scoreless tie.

The following week Barberton journeyed to Fostoria to add another link to her chain of victories. The team was accompanied by a large group of faithful fans. If ever a team fought it was in this game. The next game was a hard earned triumph over Orrville who had, until this time, claimed the state championship. Their hopes were shattered when they met the Barberton warriors. Barberton closed its season with a victory over Cuyahoga Falls.

This closed a most successful football season for B. H. S. The senior class of January '27 are proud to say they had five men on the varsity team of 1926.

Barberton's position of leadership in athletics in this section of the state is due to a great extent to the untiring efforts of our Coach, backed by the faculty and student body.

To Coach Stanley A. Pratt is due much praise. Coming to Barberton this year after finishing school at Ohio Wesleyan, where he starred in football and baseball, Coach was faced with difficulties in football. The way he rounded the team into shape and produced results, gives ample proof as to his ability as a coach of high caliber. His efforts show fairness and sincerity. His personality is one of the greatest influences for good that we have in the high school.

Coach Pratt was very ably assisted by C. H. "Doc" Spangler.

While Barberton athletics are under the supervision of such able men we need have no fear as to the reputation Barberton will make, both as to ability and as to sportmanship.

Coach Pratt (To new player)—"You're great! The way you hammer the line, dodge, tackle your man and worm through your opponents is simply marvelous."

Lawrence S. (Modestly)—"I guess it all comes from my early training, sir. You see, my mother used to take me shopping with her on bargain days."

"Dale," called his mother from the next room, "what are you opening that can with?"

Dale, in reply, "I'm using a can-opener. What did you think I was doing it with?"

"Oh, I see," replied his mother, "I thought from your remarks you were opening it with a prayer."

Miss Mitchell—"Take your seat."

Bob W.—"I can't. It's screwed to the floor."

The Ten Commandments

1. Thou shalt not be late for school, for that doth grieve the teachers sorely.

2. Thou shalt not forget thy excuse, nor thy permit, nor any of the rules, lest that cause trouble.

3. Thou shalt not cut school, lest thou be assigned a chair in Room 25.

4. Thou shalt not get thy Latin with a pony.

5. Thou shalt not loiter in the halls, nor on the stairs between classes, lest Mr. Wyman see thee.

6. Thou shalt not eat candy nor peanuts nor chew gum in school lest thou tempt the teachers.

7. Thou shalt not wear thy class colors, lest thou be suspended indefinitely.

8. Thou shalt not fail to become aroused over football, basketball or baseball, lest thou be called a disloyal pupil.

9. Thou shalt not fail to pay thy class dues, lest thou be called a "Slacker."

10. Thou shalt not fail to get a Magician, lest the Magician staff be left in debt.
